

BOARS TYE RESIDENTIAL HOME

NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2017

Hello and welcome to to the November issue of our newsletter. We've been busy this month at Boars Tye, and there's a cute new addition to the Boars Tye family! Read on to find out more.

It's not long to go until our Autumn Fayre on the 18th November. More details in the newsletter. If you'd like a stall or to donate any items to raise money for our residents' fund there is still time, just pop into the office or email Debbie at debbie@boarstye.co.uk.

Activities and News

Our residents have had an exciting month with lots to keep them occupied. We have had some great entertainment organised by Jennie and plenty of engaging activities too. We have had fun pumpkin carving and creating beautiful autumnal flower arrangements. Thanks to Eva for such inspired

Our lovely handyman Phil has been helping our residents to enjoy some woodwork, creative skills help to keep minds active and hands busy. Here Phil and one of our fabulous residents are making shelves which will be used around the home.

There's never a dull moment at Boars Tye and especially so when Alex the Accordion Player comes to visit us! None of can resist his special brand of musical fun, we always have a toe-tapping, hand clapping time! And of course our residents love to get involved too by shaking their tambourines and maracas.

UPCOMING EVENTS

*First Tuesday of the month we have 'Make Do And Mend' – An activity for residents where we offer fun and practical DIY and needlework sessions.

*Second Tuesday of the month it's 'Mission Morse Code' where everyone can participate in learning this unique way of communication! This session is open to residents, staff and any visitors who would like to join in.

*Third Tuesday of the month we are pleased to offer a new Photo Club. All residents that want to participate will be loaned a digital camera to get creative and take their own photos of things that are special to them. All photos will be displayed around the home.

*Friday 27th October – Alex The Accordion Player to be followed by a residents' meeting at 3.30pm.
